Re: MB Docket No. 10-56

Dear Chairman Genachowski:

As the Founder and Executive Director for Home of Miracles & Embraces, Inc. (H.O.M.E.), I am writing you to offer my perspective on Comcast and its commitment to community organizations like H.O.M.E., based in Fredericksburg, Virginia. I enthusiastically support its proposal to join with NBC Universal and strongly encourage the FCC to do the same.

H.O.M.E. is an HIV and STD prevention and intervention organization that targets our outreach and efforts on youth and minority communities in Northern Virginia.

At H.O.M.E. our mission is educate, advocate, and empower the community on HIV/AIDS issues and provide prevention & intervention services with a "Focus on Youth" emphasis.

We are proud that Comcast has been our partner in this effort for the past four years; it provides excellent media support to help us deliver our message to new audiences, in which we would have not been able reached otherwise without their help. It features H.O.M.E. prominently on its Red Carpet and Newsmakers series, which effectively generates interest, support, and, more importantly, awareness outside of the Fredericksburg area.

Comcast's commitment to diversity is aligned with our mission to reach and educate minority communities about HIV/AIDS. Additionally, Comcast uses its innovative mediums to deliver our educational messages to young people, who are often the most difficult to reach.

In collaboration with the men and women who have benefitted from our messages, and on behalf of the communities we have yet to reach, I, once again, enthusiastically and strongly encourage the support of Comcast's union with NBC Universal.

Sincerely,

Ozzy Ramos
